

BRYAN HEBERT

General Counsel, Delisi Communications

Bryan Hebert has 20 years of experience in public policy analysis, legislative advocacy, legal counseling, and legislative document drafting. Before joining Delisi Communications, Bryan served as General Counsel to the Office of the Lieutenant Governor, where he was also Public Information Officer. Bryan also worked as an attorney for the Texas Legislative Council, serving the governor and all 181 members of the Texas Legislature, and acting as the chief drafter and counsel on several high profile education bills, including the school finance overhaul in 2006.

In addition to his time in the capitol, Bryan's professional experience also includes service as executive director of a not-for-profit public policy group and as a college adjunct professor teaching Texas and United States Government. He is a graduate of Louisiana State University with a degree in Political Science, and received his law degree from Washington University School of Law in St. Louis.
