Message from the Chair

The Legislative and Campaign Law Section is excited for the year ahead which will include elections, run-offs, and implementation of legislation passed this session. We will work to keep you apprised of what you need to know across the legislative and political spectrum. Be on the look-out for e-news on various topics throughout the year, and if there is ever something you would like us to cover, a topic of interest, or something you just want to know more about, please email me.
